He wrote Al Bidaya Wal Nihaya, which was widely popular. This edition has been translated into different languages around the world. The book discusses the tenure of Banu Umayyah from 40th Hijri to 132nd Hijri year, focusing on the biographies of caliphs, their merits, major events, and government transitions. Al-Bidayah wa An-Nihayah, a renowned Islamic historical book, provides a comprehensive account of various events, prophets, civilizations, and historical narratives from the creation of Adam to the author's time. Written by Abu Al-Fida Imad ad-Deen Isma'eel bin Umar ibn Katheer in 7 parts, it is considered one of the most authoritative sources on Islamic History. They believed or disbelieved. The author included them for additional details or to provide names for people and places mentioned briefly in the Quranic text without relying on them as evidence or for support. The idea of the book Al-Bidayah Wan-Nihayah holds a revered place in the hearts of Muslims worldwide. It is a treasure trove of Islamic knowledge, an indispensable addition to any Islamic library. In this monumental work, Ibn Kathir meticulously unfolds the tapestry of human history, commencing with the creation of the Throne, the Kursi (Footstool), the heavens, and the Earth, along with their inhabitants, including angels, jinn, and devils. The author proceeds to describe the divine creation of Adam and narrates the stories of the prophets, leading up to the era of the Children of Isra'eel and the Days of Ignorance (Jahiliyyah). The narrative culminates with the advent of the final Prophet, Muhammad (peace be upon him), signaling the conclusion of prophethood. Ibn Kathir then expounds upon the life of the Prophet, recording the events that transpired during his time. The book delves into the trials and battles that punctuated the Islamic history, offering insights into the signs heralding the approach of the Hour, the resurrection, and the terrors of the Day of Judgment, all described with meticulous detail. One volume of this vast work, known as "An-Nihayah Fil-Fitan Wal-Malahim" (The Ending in Trials and Battles), explores these themes. A plan of action was devised to create a summarized version of this remarkable book, encompassing ten principal points. The provided text discusses a collection of Islamic texts and books that focus on various topics such as past events, prophetic stories, miracles, battles, and the end times. These resources include works by notable authors like Imam Ibn Kathir and Abdur Rahman Al-Sheha, which offer insights into Islamic theology and history.
